Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh Memorial College of Pharmacy and PGIMER, Chandigarh, Joined hands to Boost Pharmacovigilance Awareness

Sept., 19, Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh Memorial College of Pharmacy, a distinguished institution dedicated to advancing pharmaceutical education and research, partnered with PGIMER, Chandigarh, in a collaborative effort to celebrate the 3rd National Pharmacovigilance Week. This nationwide initiative, which ran from September 17th to September 23rd, 2023, carried the theme "Boosting Public Confidence in Pharmacovigilance."

In a bid to enhance public understanding of pharmacovigilance and adverse drug reaction (ADR) reporting, the two institutions jointly hosted an online seminar on September 19, 2023. This enlightening event focused on the Pharmacovigilance Program of India (PvPI) and the Materiovigilance Program of India (MvPI). Esteemed speakers, Prof. Bikash Medhi, Professor of the Department of Pharmacology, PGIMER, Chandigarh, and Dr. Ajay Prakash, renowned experts from PGIMER, Chandigarh, took center stage to illuminate the critical aspects of drug and medical device safety monitoring. They firmly believed that education was the key to fostering a culture of pharmacovigilance and ensuring patient safety. Together, they equipped individuals with the knowledge and tools to actively engage in drug safety reporting. Prof. Medhi emphasizes the importance of educating healthcare professionals, students, and the general public about the significance of pharmacovigilance. He believes that by increasing awareness about ADR reporting, individuals can actively contribute to patient safety and the overall effectiveness of the healthcare system.

Dr. A. S. Kushwah, Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacology, and Dr. Rahul Kumar Sharma, visionaries who spearheaded this on line awareness seminar, underscored the significance of raising awareness about ADR reporting within the healthcare community and beyond.

Prof. (Dr.) Shailesh Sharma, Director of the Institute and the Convener of this remarkable Seminar, expressed his enthusiasm, stating, "Our joint endeavor with Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh Memorial College of Pharmacy was a significant step toward expanding the reach of pharmacovigilance awareness."

On this occasion, all students, HoDs, and faculty members of the institute united to learn about their individual roles in drug safety and patient well-being, fostering learning, discussions, and collaboration for an enhanced healthcare system through pharmacovigilance.

ROTRACT CLUB ORGANIZED SEMINAR ON WOMENS HYGIENE

The Rotaract Club of COP-BELA organized a seminar on women's hygiene, and having Rotarian Dr. Rita Kalra as the speaker is certainly a valuable addition. As a Senior Medical Officer at Civil Hospital Panchkula, Dr. Kalra likely brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the discussion. Women's hygiene is an important topic that addresses various aspects of women's health and well-being. Dr. Kalra's expertise in the field will likely contribute significantly to raising awareness and providing valuable information to the audience. Seminar attendees can expect to learn about various aspects of women's hygiene, including menstrual health, personal care, and other relevant topics. The information shared during the lecture can empower attendees to make informed decisions about their health and well-being. Director of the college Dr. Shailesh Sharma and President of Roract Club MS. Navjeet Kaur welcomed the guest and honour them on delivering the expert talk.

DUSHERA CELEBRATED AT COPBELA

Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh College of Pharmacy involves a unique and creative way of observing Dussehra by creating a 20-ft Ravana effigy on the college campus. This celebration likely includes various cultural activities, such as dancing and music, to mark the occasion.

On the occasion Director of the college Dr. Shailesh Sharma said that Dussehra is a major Hindu festival that symbolizes the victory of good over evil, with the burning of effigies of the demon king Ravana being a central ritual in many parts of India. It's interesting to see how the college students have incorporated this tradition into their celebrations, making it a festive and engaging event. Such celebrations not only provide an opportunity for students to participate in cultural and creative activities but also foster a sense of community and shared joy among the college members.

DIWALI FESTIVAL CELEBRATED AT COPBELA

Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh College of Pharmacy celebrated Diwali with enthusiasm and festivity. Dr. Shailesh Sharma said that Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is a significant Hindu festival celebrated with joy and fervor across India and in many other parts of the world. He also gives good wishes to all students and their parents.

The inclusion of traditional elements such as diyas (oil lamps), sweets, and the lighting of crackers in the college campus signifies the cultural richness and diversity of the celebrations. Diwali is a time for families and communities to come together, share joy, and illuminate their surroundings as a symbol of the victory of light over darkness. Dancing and music are integral parts of many Diwali celebrations, adding to the lively and spirited atmosphere. It's heartening to see the students actively participating in these cultural activities, fostering a sense of unity and celebration within the college community.
